

EasyLife is an established Home online and mail order brand who are opening their first ever UK store in Hemel Hempstead and are recruiting Customer focused Sales Assistants for this exciting project!

This is not your usual retail store position – It truly is an amazing opportunity to be part of something from the start and help shape the way the brand trades in physical stores. The input from the Store Management and all team members is critical to the success of the store and will help shape the operations and structure of the planned roll out of more stores across the country!

The brand is offering excellent package which includes bonus/incentives that reflect the standard of staff they want for this important launch in mid to late October.

If you are a customer service focused Sales assistant who would like to join something at the start of this exciting project, I would love to hear from you.
